Belongings and cases:

Flute parents, take your child's case and coat with you after dropping them off at the Band Room for their Big Group Lesson.

Cello parents, leave your child's cello case in the auditorium on the sides of the audience space. You may leave your child's coat there in the auditorium on a seat.

Violin parents, take your child's coats with you (not cases). The violinists will leave their cases in the Black Box room behind the Auditorium before the PlayIn after their Big Group Lesson.

PLEASE LABEL YOUR CHILD'S CASE WITH THEIR NAME & SCHOOL.

Parent Talk Guest Suzuki Teachers

Dr. Vincent Phelan and Mrs. Elizabeth Council-Phelan have 55 combined years of teaching experience, and enjoy working with students of all ages, levels and backgrounds. Vince and Elizabeth are founders of the Corryville Suzuki Project (CSP) & TEEN STRINGS, the CSP Summer Camp, and facilitate the annual Cincinnati City-Wide Suzuki Violin Play-In. They are both active performers in the Cincinnati area, with extensive pedagogical and conservatory training. The Phelans are guest clinicians for workshops during the school year, and teach at Suzuki Institutes in the summer.
